

which it was not the province of the Assembly to interfere with.

Mr. Hazard explained, that he had referred to this case in equity, and asked to have it investigated for the purpose of preventing, by such legislative action as might be necessary, any repetition of the injustice set forth, and to call the attention of the people, as well as the Assembly, to the almost unlimited powers claimed for this court as a court of equity. It certainly could not be that the Assembly had not the power to investigate this case, for the purpose he had stated.

Mr. Jenckes replied that the Supreme Court was the sole judge of its powers as a court of equity; that the Assembly could possibly have nothing to do with the question raised; and that therefore the Committee could not go into such an investigation as was asked.

Mr. Hazard was surprised to hear it announced that there was no higher power in the State than the Supreme Court, and that no matter what that Court might do, its action could neither be restrained nor inquired into.

In the course of his remarks, Mr. Hazard asked for his memorial, that he might read such portions of it as explained the purpose of asking the investigation. The chairman did not think it necessary to read the memorial. Mr. Hazard thought it was necessary; it would show that he did not ask the Assembly to annul any decision or decree that had been made, but to inquire into it with the view of preventing future abuses of power. After a while, the chairman handed him the memorial, and he was allowed to read a few lines.

In reply to a question from Mr. Hazard, the chairman of the Committee said that the State had conferred upon the Supreme Court full equity powers.

Mr. Hazard did not think this was the fact, and inquired for the law which conferred those powers.

The chairman, after the inquiry had been several times repeated, produced the constitution of the State and the Digest of 1844, and pointed out the clauses on which the equity powers of the Supreme Court rested.

Mr. Hazard asked leave to read these clauses, but the committee would not listen. He then said that neither the constitution nor the law referred to, meant to confer equity powers upon the Supreme Court. They were but an enumeration of the powers of the Court, and indicated only that equity powers, when conferred at all, must be conferred upon and exercised by this Court. That they were not regarded as an actual grant of equity jurisdiction—and especially of unlimited jurisdiction—was plainly shown by the fact that special laws, conferring equity jurisdiction in certain cases, had been passed since the constitution and the law referred to were adopted and in force.

DEDICATORY SERVICES.—The dedication of the new Church erected by the Central (late Pine street) Baptist Society, on Broad street, took place last evening. The church itself is a plain edifice both outside and in. Instead of pendant chandeliers, the house is lighted with gas burners projecting from the galleries, thirty-six on a side, and fourteen shaded behind the pulpit. The arrangements inside are very convenient. The exercises of the evening were opened by reading the lessons contained in the XVth chapter of Matthew. An impressive prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Sears; after which the choir sang a grand anthem in excellent voice. The dedicatory sermon was preached by the pastor of the society, Rev. Mr. Field, from Mat. 12: 6: "But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater than the temple." It was a profound and touching discourse, and was listened to with the deepest attention by the vast congregation who filled the pews, aisles and galleries.—Prov. Transcript.

TRANSPLANTING TREES.—Now is the time to transplant trees that have attained the growth of full shadiness. Trees, twenty-five years old, are movable with safety. If you cut out a ball of frozen earth with them, say ten feet in diameter and three or four deep. This will embrace all their roots, except the tap, which goes generally straight down, and serves only as a ballast. Everybody has read of such things, but few have seen the process, and, therefore, few believe. At least, very few seem to be impressed with the practicability of obtaining full-grown shade and fruit trees, which will be, during the first year, as if they grew from the seed upon their own grounds.—Seeing is believing; therefore, we would direct attention at this time to a dozen large and most beautiful full-grown ornamental trees now being transplanted to the grounds around Mr. Silver's mansion. They are Norway Firs, Balm of Gilead, Hemlock, Spruce, Scotch Larches, Horse-Chestnuts, &c., varying from thirty to forty feet in height, and having balls of frozen earth from five to six tons each embracing all the roots. They look as if they would never know they were moved.—Leiger.

CHRISTIAN SPIRITUALISM.—Though we are not believers in Spiritualism, technically so called, we regard this movement as an uprising of the human mind after something better than the existing faith of Christendom. It is the John the Baptist to a new Reformation. Starved by the creeds and churches, that are neither in harmony with God's truth above, nor with man's below; sick of worldliness and materialism, the words, spirits, spiritualism, spiritual medium, come with a remarkable freshening influence to the scared and arid heart of a multitude.

The Christian Spiritualist, of New York, is a well-conducted paper, and its editor, or principal contributor, is a man of much ability. The mystic side of our nature has received so little attention, and had so meagre an expression in the hard intellect of America, that the writings of Mr. Harris possess no little charm to a meditative soul.—Christian Inquirer.

A PATTERSON (N. J.) INCENDIARY SHOT DEAD IN DETROIT.—We learn by the Western papers that Cornelius Christie, an incendiary from Patterson, who has been in the New Jersey State Prison, has met with the violent death. His crimes long since merited. It appears that a man shot at him while he was in the very act of firing a house. The first shot missed the victim, but the second killed him instantly. The shooting was deemed to be a justifiable homicide. This Christie is the same fellow who set fire to Carrick's Mill, a long while ago.—Phil. Pennsylvania.

MODERN CHIVALRY.

The Lecture upon the above named subject, by the Rev. E. H. CHAPIN, on Thursday evening, was listened to with great interest and delight by a large audience.

The chief object of the lecturer was to defend the present age from the charge of meanness in comparison with other epochs of human history—especially the age of Chivalry. In doing this the lecturer made a great many just criticisms upon our time, brought out many of its worst defects, and with clear sight and hearty appreciation exhibited its redeeming features, dwelt upon its characteristics or indications of essential goodness.

Mr. C.'s defence against atheism of the scientific tendencies of the 19th century, was logical and grand. His statements in regard to the poetry of a less enlightened period and our own, were also discriminating and just. We think he might have made the case even better for modern song than he did. Not only do we justly appreciate the mighty singers; not only do we receive from those mountains of inspiration the fertilizing streams forever flowing therefrom, but we, by our science and inward meditation, by the new values we give to nature and to life, have really made in no small degree the old myths and legends, Job and Homer, say Dante and Shakespeare, what they are. We give new and higher readings of the old poets and upon the mount of their first poetic vision we have transfigured them.

We do not propose a report of this lecture. Those who heard it know what it was much better than any report could tell them; those who did not hear it simply lost the opportunity of listening to the most eloquent discourse of the season.

Mr. Chapin is a noble, whole-hearted thinker upon the present condition of man. He is a brave actor in his place in the great drama of our time. He speaks with a conviction, mellowed by sympathy, made radiant by clarity, yet deep and intense, of the real grandeur of truth, and of the sure success of Christian love and faith: but a conviction also of the need of unyielding endeavor to make that triumph of Christianity sure to us.

The next lecture in the course will be given on Thursday evening, March 6th, by Arthur Gilman, Esq., upon the "Characteristics of New England Humor." As Mr. Gilman is not generally known to the people of Newport, we would say that he has been invited to lecture here as one of the best humorists in the country. Those who hear him will be sure to laugh with a will and to laugh for no mean jokes. A course of literary lectures ought at least to have one man for fun, provided, of course, it is fun and not nonsense. The Yankes at laugh too little. A school to teach laughing would be as profitable (if it could be successfully done) as a school to teach singing. We have every reason to believe that Mr. Gilman will give the first lesson next week.

A petition is in circulation among the Merchants of New York asking the President to recognize Mr. Barclay against British Consul at that port. Such an act would be a graceful response to the policy of Great Britain in sending a minister to Washington.

FIRE.—The brass and tin manufactory of Edward Miller, in Meriden, Ct., took fire at 11 o'clock on Tuesday night, and was entirely destroyed, with most of its contents. Loss about $15,000. Insured $5,000 in Adams, Hartford, and $5,000 in the Hartford.

The tannery of Mr. Frazier Carlton, in Salem, was destroyed by fire on Thursday, about 6 o'clock. Loss estimated at from $10,000 to $15,000. Only $2,000 insurance.

PRIDE.

BY JOHN H. SAGE.

'Tis a curious fact as ever was known, But often in human nature shown, Alike in the castle and cottage, That pride, like pigs of a certain brood, Will manage to live and thrive on food As poor as pauper pottage!

Of all the notable things on earth, The queerest thing is the pride of birth, Among our "sacred democracy!" A bridge across a hundred years, Without a prop to stay it from success— Not even a couple of rotten pliers— A thing for laughter, frowns and jeers, Is American aristocracy!

Depend upon it, snobbish friend, Your family thread you can't ascend, Without good reason to apprehend You may find it wasted on the other end By some plebeian vocation!

Or worse than that, your boasted line, May end in a loop of stronger twine, That plucked some wretched relation.

Because you flourish in worldly affairs, Do not be haughty and put on airs, With insolent pride of station!

Don't be proud and turn up your nose, At poorer people in plainer clothes, But learn for the sake of your mind's repose That all proud flesh wherever it grows, Is subject to irritation!

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

SENATE.—The Senate passed twenty-five private bills including one permitting Commander Hartstone and others to accept certain tokens of acknowledgment of humane service from the British government.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the resolution for the expulsion of Mr. Gilbert.

Mr. Purviance offered as substitute, that the House forthwith proceed with the trial, directing the Sergeant-at-arms to summon Messrs. Triplett and Sweeney to appear before the bar of the House for examination, and allowing Mr. Gilbert to be heard in person or by counsel.

The resolution of Mr. Purviance was rejected by a vote of 82 against 109.

Mr. Gilbert here made some remarks and at the conclusion resigned his seat as a member. The resolutions in his case contemplating his expulsion were after some debate tabled.

Mr. Matteson's case next came up which was somewhat summarily disposed of by his expulsion.

Mr. Welch was cleared by a handsome vote.

FROM NICARAGUA.—New Orleans papers of Friday state that on the morning the steamer Texas left San Juan, a force of seven armed boats from the British fleet ascended the San Juan river, toward the filibuster camp. Their object, it is supposed, was to release some British subject who had invoked the protection of the British officers, but were hurried up the river by the filibuster leaders.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF THE

DR. ROBERT M. PATRICK, 192 Pearl Street, New York, N. Y., 4th, 1856.

DEAR SIR.—The Baltimore Case, No. 5,778, purchased from you about eighteen months since, was in my house at Newport, R. I., which, with the furniture, was entirely destroyed by fire on the night of 6th June last. The safe, after being exposed to an intense heat for many hours, was recovered on the 10th of June. Not having the necessary tools at hand to open it, the case has stood just as when received, until shipped to your address, New York. When opened at your store this morning, I was agreeably surprised, as we also others present, to find the contents, consisting of valuable silver plate, &c., in as perfect order as when placed therein. It is with pleasure I add my testimony to the merits of the Safes of your manufacture. Yours, Respectfully,

DANIEL PARSONS.

SAVES OF ALL SIZES. Photo Chests for Private Families, &c., &c., &c., at sale and made to order, at the Depot, 192 PEARL STREET, one door below Maiden Lane, and at the Manufactory, Nos. 69, 62, 61 and 60 Cannon street, New York.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUFFY'S Golden Remedial Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstructions from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others, that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the mind is harassed by a morbid train of ideas, and a morbidly suspicious among young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do not always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remove all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.

Price $1.00 per box. For sale by HAZARD & CASWELL, 12 Washington Square, and 137 Thames St. They will supply the trade at manufacturer's prices. Ladies, by enclosing $1.00 per box, will receive a box of Pills sent (renewable) by mail to any part of the city or country.

NOTICES.—The well known Mary and Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. F. Francis & Co. are the managers, are characterized by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected, who they themselves are present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day in the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the consummation comes to hand. The prizes of tickets vary from $1.00 to $25.00. No tickets, however, sent under the name of the manager for the sake of receiving the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertiary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $25 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over. Address: T. HUBBARD & Co., No. 38 Fayette st., or Box No. 49, Baltimore, Maryland.

EVERYBODY'S A BACHELOR

BY FREDERICK.
POCKES, No. 4.

AM—"A Few Days."
Cold Weather's coming soon, we know. In a few days, a few days; With ice and hail, rain and snow, As you are going home. But that may do no harm, For a few days, a few days; Sisson's Clothing's nice and warm, As you are going home.

CHOICES.
And his sign it hangs up yonder, For a few days, a few days; His sign it hangs up yonder, As you are going home.

Shanghai Cocks are all the go, For a few days, a few days; Sisson's sells them mighty low, As you are going home.

To hit you, Sis-on will engage, As you are going home.

And his sign, &c.
Pants and Vests of every hue, For a few days, a few days; Warm Overcoats and Hosiery, too, As you are going home.

Tabacco, Cigars, fine Shawls and all, For a few days, a few days; Made to fit both great and small, As they are going home.

And his sign, &c.
At Six North Main St. is his store, For a few days, a few days; The cash each day is new and more, As you are going home.

His prices they can not beat, For a few days, a few days; His customers are all complete, As you are going home.

And his sign, &c.
Then rally, friends, both one and all, For a few days, a few days; And give this famous Store a call, As you are going home.

Sisson will you kindly greet, For a few days, a few days; The place is Number Six Main Street, As you are going home.

And his sign it hangs up yonder, For a few days, a few days; His sign it hangs up yonder, As you are going home.
